

The REVEL for Psychologist as Detective: An Introduction to Conducting Research in Psychology -- Access Card (6th Edition)

REVEL for The Psychologist as Detective: An Introduction to Conducting Research in Psychology introduces students to the research process. Authors Randolph Smith and Stephen Davis treat psychological research as a detective case in which a problem is presented, clues are discovered, evidence is evaluated, and a report is prepared for consideration by peers. This engaging approach to research in psychology helps students learn how to think critically about research and research methods.
